THE GLEAVES FAMILY

Much has already been written about the Gleaves Family. Dennis Glaves, a Vietnam Veteran, has meticulously compiled a book 'The Descendants of Matthew Glave – the Glaves/Gleaves Family in America'. For more on this work refer to the Gleaves Family Association website found at www.GleavesFamily.com.

This is an incomplete record of this family...researched by this writer over the past several years. Due to writer's age, no further research is to be made.

Dr. E. L. Gleaves' letter of June 2, 1925, detailing information relayed to him by J. Miller Turner, deceased, was the first of the records accumulated over the years.¹

LETTER of JUNE 2, 1925² (by J. MILLER TURNER ...facts from Dr. Edgar Lee Gleaves³)

The original family by the name of GLEAVES came from Willingham⁴, England to America the exact date being unknown. Several years prior to the Colonial War, they settled in Virginia near Roanoke, where several descendants still live. The first one of the family to come to Tennessee was MIKE GLEAVES₁⁵ (MICHAEL) who came to the Boone Settlement in Northern Kentucky, from there to Mansker's Fort situated about 14 miles north of what is now Nashville, Tennessee. The Fort was built in the fork of a stockade on Mansker's Creek at a large spring on what is now the boundary line between Davidson & Sumner Counties, about one and one-half miles northeast of Cumberland River. This settlement was under the command of Captain Donelson. There was also at this fort a Dr. Sam Johnson, noted frontiersman of that date. MIKE GLEAVES₁ at that time entered the Colonial Army and fought at the Battle of Kings Mountain in 1780, after which he returned to Fort Mansker with his 2 negro servants and there married a lady named RACHEL, last name unknown to the writer. This ¹ Letter sent by William W. Gleaves of Eugene, Oregon on July 11, 1984, to Robert M. Allen. June Novick of Ocala, Fla. sent a copy to Hilda H. Barnes (HHB) in April 1999 and she re-copied it in April 1999 with some additions noted. All routes this letter has taken are not documented.

² Written June 2, 1925 by J. Miller Turner, deceased, as related to the writer, Dr. E. L. Gleaves. A few amendments were made in Jan. 1932 and 1952.

James T. Gleaves Letter

Another letter came to my attention (perhaps thru the descendants of Clyde M. Gleaves)... from Mr. James T. 'Jim T.' Gleaves - (written when he was 88 years of age).

As a child and young girl⁵³, I knew 'JIM T.' as he was affectionately known in the Hermitage, Tennessee Community. Little did I know he was related to me. But I might have known he was, as so many people in the community were related to my father's or my mother's people...and the fact my mother called all the Gleaves 'cuzzins'. My great-grandmother was Martha Ann Virginia Gleaves Jenkins, daughter of James Robertson Gleaves. Jim T's father was Robert Hughes Gleaves, Martha Ann's brother (also a son of James Robertson Gleaves). Much of the land my father owned and farmed was purchased from Gleaves families or heirs.

LETTER

Sept. 28, 1933

TO: Mr. Clyde M. Gleaves⁵⁴
FROM: James T. Gleaves⁵⁵

Dear Clyde:

As per your request thru Bennie Bright, I will try to write you up a 'Family Tree', as best I can. I may make some errors, as my memory has become somewhat treacherous. I am not able to tell you much about the BROOKS family, your maternal ancestors. As I remember, your grandfather, Mose Brooks, Sr. had 2 sons, James and Joe Brooks, and I think, 3 daughters, Mollie Creel, John Lloyd's wife, whose given name I have forgotten, and Alice, your mother.

Regarding the GLEAVES family, I will state that your great-great-grandfather, Thomas Gleaves, was married in the year 1785⁵⁶ to a daughter of Felix Robertson, who was a brother of James Robertson, the founder of Nashville, Tennessee. Felix Robertson was a lawyer, statesman and philanthropist, a great and noted man.

THOMAS GLEAVES₁ raised 5 boys⁵⁷:

1. William B. Gleaves
2. James Robertson, your grandfather⁵⁸
3. John Gleaves
4. Felix Gleaves
5. Max Gleaves⁵⁹
6. Frank Gleaves

⁵³ Hilda H. Hagar Barnes

⁵⁴ born 1880 – died 1962

⁵⁵ born 1845 – died 1945

⁵⁶ HHB: Thomas m. Sallie Smith in 1797. Is it possible he was married twice? Or was Sallie first a Robertson and first married to a SMITH...then later married Thomas Gleaves? Or is this letter-writer confused on dates? Thomas did name a son, James Robertson Gleaves!!! Has any one found a marriage record of 1785 to a "Miss Robertson? Note also that Thomas' father, William B., married in May 1770....and Thomas was born in March 1771... In 1785 he would have been only 14! Therefore a marriage as early as 1785 is improbable).

⁵⁷ HHB: correction: it was 6. William B. was omitted by Jim T.

⁵⁸ HHB: cor: Great Grandfather

⁵⁹ HHB: no record of "Max" Gleaves - but there is a record of a son, Americus D. Gleaves

SARAH CATHERINE LOUISIANA GLEAVES born Jan. 8, 1845. Married D. R. Humble. Fruit: 1 daughter, now dead.

I will now tell you something of the BAKER side of your ancestry, which I think will interest you. James Baker, my grandfather, (your great grandfather) was born in North Carolina, Dec. 10, 1788 and died in the 4th District of Davidson County, Tenn, Nov. 7, 1866. He married Annie Sanders, who was born in South Carolina, May 7, 1792 and died in Davidson County, Tennessee, Nov. 27, 1890.

James (Baker) while a young man, bought a mule of some one who lived in S. C. The said mule broke out of the pasture and made his way back to the place of his nativity. James made a trip down there on hunt of his mule. While in S. C. he stopped one night with a Mr. Sanders, who had an attractive daughter named Annie. He fell desperately in love with said Annie and subsequently married her. They decided to come to Tennessee, which was then a new country.

They had a little money, but not enough to buy another horse to go with the one they had, so granddaddy 'hoofed it', his wife riding the horse, all the way from S. C. to Nashville, Tennessee They landed in Nashville with only $40 and the horse. They rented a farm near what is known as Flat Rock, on the Murfreesboro Pike, not very far from what is now Antioch. The farm was a very fertile one, but had no house on it except a little log cabin with no floor - the whole earth was the only floor. They drove forks in the ground, put poles in the forks, and in cracks of the walls, thus making bed stead on which they put straw for a mattress. They had 1 stew pot, and a skillet, which constituted their cooking vessels. Having no plates, they both ate from the cooking vessels, with only a pocket knife and a wooden fork.

⁶² HHB: correction: 4 daughters

⁶³ HHB: correction: Chas. Tyler Jenkins

The old man made bumper crop that year and in a few years made money and bought the farm. Subsequently he swapped this farm for the one on Stones River, where he lived the balance of his days. In swapping farms, he received a pony and a silk bandana handkerchief to boot. The handkerchief was about 30 inches square, and in those days considered valuable, worth some $20 to $25.

They raised 11 children, 3 sons and 8 daughters:

1. William D. Baker, born 1812
2. Jefferson Baker born 1814 (died while a young man-never married).
3. Rose Anna born 1816
4. Francis 'Frank' born 1818
5. Sarah, married Bill Ballentine, born 1820
6. Nancy, married John R. Evans, born 1822
7. Susan, born 1824. Died before grown
8. Mary T. (my mother) born June 15, 1826
9. Elizabeth, born 1828, married John E. Wright
10. Emily, born 1829, died before grown
11. Delilah, born 1831, married William C. Gleaves.

These have all passed away.

William D. Baker reared 8 children, all dead except Howell, who resides at Watertown, Tennessee. He is the father of Robert H. Baker, who was Highway commissioner under Horton's administration. He has 1 daughter in Mt. Juliet, the wife of Bro. Howard McFarlin. Each of grandfather Baker's children raised families, but most of them are dead.

Uncle Billie, as I above stated, has 1 living child, Howell Baker.

Jefferson never married.

Aunt Rose Anna had 4 sons, all dead but one. And 2 daughters, both dead.

Uncle Frank has 5 boys, all dead. 6 girls - all dead but 1. Charity, now 91 years old.

Aunt Nancy Evans had 1 son and 6 girls - 3 girls are living.

Aunt Sarah Ballentine had 2 girls and 5 boys - all dead.

Mary my mother, 1 girl and 2 sons., I the only living one.

Aunt Lizzie Wright had 1 son and 2 girls. One girl living.

Aunt Delilah Gleaves, 3 girls and 1 son - The son still lives.

I believe this is about all that is necessary for me to say. If I have left out any point that you would like to have, write me, and if possible I will attend to it.

I might add that Old Grandfather Baker had 3 brothers who followed him to Tennessee viz:

William, Hiram and John. William and John did well - raised families and accumulated nice property. Hiram did no good and died a pauper. Uncle John was killed by Federal Soldiers during the Civil War - while guarding his watermelon patch. I might also tell you that both my grandfather and grandmother (Bakers) met tragic deaths. The old man was fox hunting, he went through a gate, his stirrup caught on the latch, the horse jumped, broke the girth and threw him, which subsequently resulted in death. Grandmother stepped on a corn cob which rolled and threw her against stair steps, which afterwards resulted in death. You will note that Granddaddy Baker died age 77 yrs. 6 mo. and 22 days. Grandmother Baker died aged 98 years, 6 months and 29 days.

DEAR CLYDE:

In writing about the Gleaves Family, I forgot to tell you that James R. Gleaves, my grandfather, had 2 sisters, ⁶⁴ Emiline and Elizabeth.

Emiline married old man Jimmie Wright, who owned and lived on a farm just west of your grandfather Brooks. She had no children.

Elizabeth⁶⁵ married a Mr. Hill and moved to Arkansas. She had 2 sons, William and Felix, one daughter Minervia, who married Filander Owen, and raised 2 sons and two daughters.

Grandmother Baker had 2 sisters who came West after grandfather & wife came. One of her sisters, Nancy, married Hiram Baker, a brother of Grandfather Baker. The other sister, whose name I have forgotten, married some man in Huntsville, Ala. I have forgotten his name. Grandmother & Grandfather used to make a trip on horseback once in a while to Huntsville to visit her sister. These trips were made before her family grew to be so large.

How would it look now to see a woman start out horseback on such a trip? People would pronounce her crazy.

Gleaves Family Explained

How is the Michael Gleaves family related to 'other' Gleaves families in Davidson County, Tennessee?

It is known for a certainty that one Thomas Gleaves came into Davidson County from Virginia in 1797 (married Sallie Smith). He was the son of William B. Gleaves (born abt. 1748) & Elizabeth Turk Gleaves of Wythe County, Virginia.

The following may be the ancestry of both William B. Gleaves (born 1740/48) & Michael Gleaves₁:

BY HILDA H. BARNES: My thinking at present :

1. William (B.) Gleaves was a son of Matthew₁ & Esther (and a grandson of THOMAS). William died in Virginia in 1820. THREE of his sons, THOMAS₁ (born March 18, 1771); MATTHEW₃ (born Nov. 9, 1772) and ABSALOM (born Sept. 5, 1781) came to Tennessee & settled in the Hermitage, Tennessee area - not too many miles from the Jones' Bend where their UNCLE, Michael₁ had already settled (all in Davidson County). Brothers Thomas₁ and Absalom were prominent in the Hermitage area, settling around what is known in 2004 as the Central Pike – Old Hickory Blvd. area. (The other 2 sons, William, (born 1777- died before 1820) and James Turk Gleaves (born 1788) did not move to Tennessee. It is known that Thomas₁ (born March 18, 1771) married in Davidson County, on March 13, 1797 and his brother Absalom married in Wythe County, Virginia, Aug. 18, 1803.

NOTE : William (B.) Gleaves (born 1740-48)⁷⁸ gave two of his sons the names of: THOMAS₁ (born March 18, 1771) and MATTHEW₃ (born Nov. 9, 1772 and died in Davidson County, Tennessee abt. Jan. 1805).

2. Michael Gleaves₁ –also a son of Matthew₁ & Esther and William (B's) brother - born ca 1760(?) came to Tennessee-PERHAPS as early as 1788 –settling in Jones' Bend - died in Davidson County, in 1811.

NOTE : Michael Gleaves₁ also named two of his sons THOMAS₂ (born ca 1789) and MATTHEW₄ (born abt. 1793 and married at the time of his father's will in 1811).

This is an example of 2 brothers - giving their sons the names of their grandfather & great-grandfather. What difference could it make if they had similar names? William lived in Virginia and Michael₁ in Tennessee. There was probably little communication. And the children would probably never know each other – living so far away. How wrong they were!! These 'cousins' spent the greater part of their lives in the same general area.

There is little doubt in my mind of the relationship of the first Matthew₁ (1725); the first Michael₁ (1754); the first Thomas₁ (1771), - to the first William(1748). Quite a bit of information has been assembled on William's line thru his sons Thomas₁, Matthew₃ and Absalom. Only the first generation of the families of William, Jr. (Sept. 22, 1777) and James Turk Gleaves (Feb. 26, 1788) has been assembled.

An attempt will be made to outline my accumulation of Gleaves information. If I infringe upon information from Dennis Glaves or others, I will attempt to credit them.

⁷⁸ William B. stayed in Wythe County, Virginia. and died there May 2, 1820

⁸⁷ ASH: Original manuscript of this book showed William D. Gleaves as the son of Michael Gleaves and the Bible as belonging to Willam G. Gleaves. When trying to reconcile the differences, the following was provided by HHB:

1) A typed note from an unknown source with no date shows in Will Book 12:

- William D. Gleaves inventory is recorded 1840-43 page 124-144
- James M. Gleaves inventory, page 250
- Mathew Gleaves settlement on page 345

I do not have the information contained in those pages; so some other person has seen the "D"

2) Kenneth Thomson of Cross Plains, TN, said that William Gleaves' middle initial is not "D" as most of our records show. He does not think William had a middle initial, but William did have a nephew named William D. Gleaves.

3) Dennis Glaves (p.89 of his book) does not show William with an initial.

ASH: The initial 'D' is being retained for this book.

⁸⁸ Virginia Melton: It is not known at this time if Ann and Polly Wilson were kin

⁸⁹ William named 3 grandchildren "Smiths" in his Will upon their coming of age 21

¹⁴⁹ I am unable to locate their names in The Halsey Book, but that doesn't mean they don't belong there. I feel sure they do. I have wondered how they came from a prominent family in N. Y. to be living in Wythe County, Virginia. They could be tied in with STEPHEN HALSEY who apparently lived in Wythe County Virginia. at one time.....John Trigg Halsey born in Wythe County Virginia. (date not shown). Perhaps this is where the Halsey girls (Catherine and Sarah) met Absalom Gleaves and Jacob Harkreader.

As a result, the footnote was added to Thomas Hill, who had originally been listed as Thomas Peyton Hill. Since then, HHB has replied: I was looking in my Cemetery book and was looking at the small list in the Thomas Gleaves Cemetery in Hermitage, Tn. (the one the Gleaves group cleaned up in March 2005.). I found: Peyton R. Hill...b. Nov. 10, 1828 d. Sept. 30, 1846. In memory of Peyton R., son of Robert S. and Elizabeth Hill.. NOTE: he was NOT alive for the 1850 census - so he is NOT the same as Robert, age 19. (b.1830-31) in the 1850 census. So..o.o.. it appears there WAS a Peyton as well as Thomas. Note parents married 12/15/1825.....Seems they had 4 sons. (wonder what his middle name was?)

Aunt Mary Dee went to stop the fight and they locked the door from the inside and almost beat her to death. Uncle Jack, who at that time was guarding near the kitchen, came out and broke the door down to get in to save her. She was hospitalized after the incident. I also remember her coming to see us and although I was only about 13 at the time, I was told not to get behind her. She always sat near a wall and was observant of everything and everyone in the room."

I was barely 10 years of age when she died but I recall accompanying my mother on visits to her home quite often. She lived about ½ mile across the woods. She was known to me as 'Aunt Lissie'. Her unmarried daughter, Annie, lived with her. If one needed help, it was the custom to ring the dinner bell for a lengthy period of time. This was their S.O.S. Farmers dropped whatever they were doing to help a neighbor in distress. I still vividly recall hearing her dinner bell across the woods from our home the day in 1931 when her daughter, Annie, died.'

She married Lucien TEMPLE and is living next door to her father or probably in his house in 1900. In the 1900 census, Alice Gleaves, says she has given birth to 4 children – with 3 living"

LETTER: From Thomas Gleaves₁:

Feb. 7, 1846

State of Tennessee, Davidson County

Feb. 7, 1846

Dear Brother and Sister:

I take my pen in hand to inform you of my troubles and loss of friends. Last July about the 20th of the month JANE RAMSEY STAMP was brought to bed with twin children her and children all died. The same day my son WILLIAM B. GLEAVE's wife was put to bed and had a young daughter born and flooded fainted and died in seven hours the child lived and is doing well. More troubles I have seen many a merry Christmas but the last balanced (?) for all.

My beloved companion departed this life on the 24th of December last and was buried on the 25th Christmas Day. Her complaint was inflammation of the stomach she suffered three weeks and departed. During this time I was down with a sore leg is perfectly well at present. I went to the grave when we buried her. It being a cool day I took the Pleurisy(?) and I am not clear of it yet. I believe with care I shall recover again. I am almost a little at preasant and hope to recover. Sally left me at a short notice did not have much conversation with her. Her breath would not admit more than two or three words at a time. I am hard of hearing she called for Nancy Ann and desired us all to leave the room. She informed her that she was going to rest. And told her what to do with her closing and asked her if she was a going to get married Nancy Jane answered she was, and accordingly was married on the 20 of January to Mr. Cherry west of my farm half mile.

I have no house keepers but the black girls I am obliged to attend to myself Frank said he will get a wife to keep house shortly then I will be at liberty if my wife had lived until the 23 of May next she would have been 70 years of age. And if she had lived until the 16th day of March next we would have been married fifty years.

The conn____? is all well except bad coals. You must write to me and let me hear from you all, nothing at preasant but in your loving brother until death. Jas you will please answer my letter at the receipt of this THOMAS GLEAVES

I wish sister Nancy³⁵⁶ would come and spend this summer with me it would be a satisfaction to me to see her at my dwelling once more_____Sister Malvina³⁵⁷ a lock of my hair also a lock of my beloved companion's hair for her to keep for sake as a sister signed:

THOMAS GLEAVES

Envelope is addressed to James T. Gleaves³⁵⁸ Buffalo Ford Post Office via ³⁵⁶ Nancy is believed to be Thomas' unmarried sister (1792-1855).

³⁵⁷ 'Sister Malvina' is the wife of James Turk Gleaves.

³⁵⁹ Only Basic Information has been included in compiling this record...copied from Family Group Records prepared by the writer over the past 25 or more years, as well as from census records,etc.

³⁶⁰ The HALSEY family is recorded in a 500 page book entitled "THOMAS HALSEY And HIS DESCENDANTS IN AMERICA" - Thomas Halsey of Hertfordshire, England & Southampton, Long Island, 1591-1679, with his American Descendants to the 8th and 9th Generations. Published 1895 in Morristown, N. J. by Jacob Lafayette Halsey and Edmund Drake Halsey. (This volume is obtainable thru Stacey's Book Search, 5712 Sweetwater NW, Albuquerque, N. Mex. 87120 at a cost of $51.00.) Regrettably the genealogy ends in 1895, with no mention of Catherine Halsey or her sister, Sarah Halsey, who married another Wythe County resident (Jacob Harkreader) and later moved to the same general area (Mt. Juliet).

The writer's Grandmother was given this family-name.- Halsey . She used the spelling as "Halsie". Her full name was Mary Jane Halsie Hamilton (Jenkins).

³⁶¹ From June Novick, Jan 25, 2009: There is more current information available on the Internet and in a booklet I picked up in Southampton a few years ago.

Regarding the Thomas Halsey information in Hilda's book: The Thomas Halsey of Hertfordshire book by Jacob LaFayette Halsey and Edmund Drake Halsey was published in 1895 and while it was well done and somewhat documented for that century, the information regarding the birth and parentage of Thomas, the immigrant to Lynn, Massachusetts and settler to Southampton, Long Island, New York, has been proven to be inaccurate by the Thomas Halsey Family Association of Southampton.

SOURCE for first five generations of Halsey Family: (The first five generations were recently proven to be the correct lineage of our immigrant Thomas Halsey, Sr., by the Halsey Family Association of Southampton, Long Island, New York. "BRANCHES OF THE HALSEY FAMILY") from Time Traveler's Genealogy Page on Internet.

Further documentation: The Thomas Halsey Family Association had sponsored research to ascertain the origin of Thomas Halsey. Many expert researchers were consulted in England where they were able to pull up copies of the male Halsey signatures on Wills, etc. to further prove their findings. Their research was certainly more than I could ever do with my fellow Halsey researchers. The Association's findings can be found in "The English Ancestry of Thomas Halsey of Southampton, Long Island" by Raymond David Wheeler. Also, Hilda states that Sarah and Catharine were not listed in the book which, of course, is correct. But, Catharine and Sarah's brother Stephen Halsey (his relationship is proven and documented by their mother's Will and other family research) and three of his sons are listed in the "Hertfordshire of 1895" book as being the son of James Halsey's younger brother Stephen. This has caused much confusion and is causing me much confusion to even write about it. Listed were Stephen's sons, John Trigg Halsey of Wythe County, VA; Stephen; and James Jefferson Halsey.

This author possesses no information on Jesse's final resting place.³⁷³ (The author is his son, Charles Gambill Gleaves, Sr., date unknown). Born in Mt. Juliet, Tennessee in 1859. Was a small boy during the Civil War – too young to participate therein. He has a brother named Ben Gleaves, a sister called 'Mike' who married a local Dr. of medicine. The 2 sons each inherited a fairly large area of land in the vicinity of Mt. Juliet, not all of it suitable for farming, but sufficient for so-called 'gentleman farming' to provide an affluent (in those days) country life for them and their children. My father (Jesse) sired 7 of his children in Mt. Juliet, all of whom lived there until 1901 or 1902, then Jesse sold all of his land holdings and with his entire family departed for Texas (greener pastures?) arriving at Royce City Texas, a small town 35 miles or so north of Dallas. There he invested in various acreages of cotton land hoping to enhance his fortunes. This venture turned out badly. During the next few years (during which I was born) land values dropped sharply, the cotton market fell, the family sorely missed the many friends and plantation life in Tennessee (except daughter Minnie who married Jim Mercer of Royce City – later birthing a daughter at about the same time I was born) So – the family returned to Lebanon, Tennessee, 15 miles from Mt. Juliet, minus much of the monetary fortune Jesse had invested in Texas land. However, he had sufficient remaining capital to invest in a 'canning factory' – canning food products such as tomatoes, corn, etc., but this venture also failed in a short time. From that, he opened a small feed and grain store. My mother, Annie Hawkes died in 1907 during this dark period, from miscarriage of her 9th child. In his grief and series of misfortune, Jesse agreed to move to Chattanooga, Tennessee at the insistence of his older sons where Finley, Tovell and Jesse, Jr. had moved and were engaged in Railroad work. A few years later, (Jul 1, 1915) Jesse H. Gleaves, Sr. died, broken in spirit and grief – a former landlord of farms unable to battle the turmoil of the City. In Chattanooga, Tenn: Guy Tovell (Gleaves) married Daisy Rosamond; Finley P(ennebaker) (Gleaves) married Nell Lyles; Charles G. (Gleaves) married Frankie Beard And quite a few years later, Eldon H. (Gleaves) married Blanche Rudder.

LETTERS FROM ABSALOM GLEAVES

Sept. 20, 1830,
Postmarked Nashville, State of Tennessee Davidson County,
TO: Major James T. Gleaves,
Wythe, Virginia.

Dear Brother yours bearing Sat. the 8 of August last has come to hand informing me of the health of your health and family and also the health of my aged mother which letter found me and my family in good health and yet enjoying the same blessings of God. Hoping these few lines will find you all enjoy the same blessings when this comes to hand. I have nothing of importance to communicate to you at present. You stated to me in your letter that you had a notion of coming to Tennessee this fall. You stated in your letter you intend to start the 25th of October next. You wished me to inform you whether I could go with you to the Western District. I am afrade (afraid) it will be out of my power to go with you as the Circuit Court comes on in Nashville on the fourth Monday in November next You say you will start the 20th October and of course it will be the 5th of November and I will not have but 18 days to go on with you as I am compelled to attend Court If you could come sooner I would be glad to go with you to the western District. I am informed that there is a plenty of good land to be had from three to 4 dollars per acre of the best quality no doubt but come suite yourself. I shall look for you about the first of November next. Your friends are all well as far as I know in Tennessee.

We have had a very sevear drouth with us this summers past. A great many people has cut their corn down and stacked it up for stock corn. God nows what will be the result. We Tennesseans don't go on small grain as much as you Virginians. My rye and wheat and oats is very good this year. My corn crop is but sorry. I have very large stock and it will be hard working to get through the winter. Times is remarkable hard in Tennessee. Money is remarkably scarce. Cotton looking up a little. You will be good enough to bring my part of money that is coming to me and I...? You mite bring Thomas a part two that is the Saving money and I wish you to bring the note that I left with you on Joseph Belshey and in so doing you will much oblige me. I am respectfully yours. Turn over

I desire to be remembered to my aged mother and glad to heare that she enjoys good health for a woman of her age. You will please to give my best wishes to Andrew Porter and family and sister Nancy and all enquiring friends. Bring Sister Nancy out with you and let her stay a year with me and I will send my older son home with her next fall. I wish you would enquir what would be the price of lively mules in Wythe as I have some very likely ones for sail (sale). Nothing more at present but remain yours with esteem until death we join and send our well wishes to you and family believing you will take a portion for yourself Absalom and Catherine Gleaves to James T. and Malvina

Letter

Envelope postmarked Nashville Feb. 29
TO Major James Gleaves, ESQ,
State of Virginia Wythe County.

Febry the 18th 1832

Dear Brother It is with pleasure I once more am permitted with kind providence to write you a few lines to inform you that we are all well at this time. We are thankful for the same hoping this will find you all well. Your last letter informed me that I could not get a decree against Capt. Stephen Halsey until the February Courte (court). I wish you to rite to me as soon as you receive this and let me know the result of the suite. I am at this time making a contract with a man by the name of Earhart to bring a legacy of money that was left him and his brothers and sisters in the State of North Carolina, Linkhorn (Lincoln) County. I will know in a few days whether I go or not. If I goe I shall start between the first of April and tenth. If I goe I intend coming back by Wythe as I have some business of my own lower down in North Carolina which will bring it in my way. You requested me in your letter before the last to name to Jacob Harkreader respecting $211 that a Mr. Brown had a claim against him relative to a suite. I named it to Harkreader. He said if I went to Virginia this Spring he would try and send some money with me to Mr. Brown but find the time is altered. I think if Mr. Brown would send his papers to some friend in Tennessee that would be his best plan. I don't wish you to let it be known that I gave this information as it is my connection. We have had a very hard winter. I believe the hardest I ever seen in my life. Brother Thomas is confined to his bead (bed) for 45 weeks by a strain of one the nerves of...his leage (leg). He cant walk one step. It is thought by some it will bring faith to him in the end. It goes very hard with him to be confined to his bead as he is a man that stirs very much when his health admits of it. The rest of your relations are all well as far as I know at this time. I have nothing of importance to communicate to you at present. Mr. Hening health is not very good at this time nor has not been for a long time. I join with sincere respect and send my best wishes to you and family and I earnestly desire to be remembered to my Mother and sister believeing you will take a portion for youself. Abs. It hath please the Allmity God to take my daughter Marthy Curde³⁸⁴ from time to Eternity. She departed this life on the first day of May in the morning a few minutes after seven in the morning She was delivered of a baby nine days previous to her death. The infant live three or four days. It is believed that she was the principal cause of her Death by fretting about the death of her infant. Her friends were numerous and give every attention that was necessary. The Doctor dun all in his power to save her. God giveth and God taketh. One concilation left her dearest friends to think of when they think of Martha M. Curde that on her dying head Jesus visited her sole and took her out of her sins and set on the rock of ages whare sorrow and trouble is no more. She told me when she a woked out of her droussy slumber that she had a hope that the Lord would smile on her poor sole. I told her to pray with every breath that a few hours longer would decide the fate with her in this world that God was about to execute his office. She prayed constantly when awake but when her droussy spells would come on she would have a smiling countenance and when a waked out of them she told me that she had a vue of her Jesus Christ and further told me she could see him at that time before her. Her mother leep for Joy and praised her Jesus that he came in to the world to save sinners. She continued in her droussy ways til she died and when she would awak out of them she still would express that she was willing to die and that all was well with her. She loved every body and wished them to prepare to meet her in heaven whare trouble and sorrer is no more.

Dear Mother and brother the death of my daughter Martha Curde is warning to all her friends and relations to prepare for Death. She was about 20 years old. The old must die and the young do die. Dear brother you saw my daughter Martha M. Curd when you was at my house. You recollect her countenance. Her and my little son William Harrison Gleaves³⁸⁵ that was killed by the fall of a tree had a strong resemblance of thar father. God give me six children and has taken two out of that number. The Allmitys will must be dun and not mine. My children often talks about you and look up to you as a second father and if God nose (knows) my hart the longer I live the better I like you. G. F. Hamilton family is all well. Sally Hamilton's³⁸⁶ little daughter Malvina is a fine child. The Small Pox is within one mile of me and many other places in our country. The people are very much alarmed. When I rote last to you I thought I would have been at your house before but circumstances alter cases. I was suppenied to attend Corte (court) in two cases on third Monday in April last which prevented my starting to North Carolina. I also received a kick from a young horse that wounded me very much. He kicked me just above the eie (eye) and cut it to the bone. If he had hit me in the temple he certainly would have killed me. And on the hand and arm at the same time which laid me up for several weeks and the death of my daughter with all the rest of my trouble come on at the time I was laid up with my wounds. It is uncertain now when I can go to North Carolina but will try to make it out this fall if nothing else occurs.

We had the hard a winter heare last winter that ever was seen in Tennessee. The peach tree are nearly all killed and great many larg trees in the woods are dead. Crops of Wheat are very likley and rye and cotton are likley. Corn are small. Your friends are well as far I now. You will please to answer this letter when you receive it and let me know how you all are and a doing and how Mrs.

(This writer researched and wrote The History of New Hope Baptist Church. One James T. Gleaves and W. E. Hagar donated the land on which the church was re-built beginning in 1871. No record of James T. Gleaves having been a member of the church – but others of his Uncle's family were charter members. He is of the right age, etc. to have been one of the donors of the property. Also, Absalom's property appears to have been nearby or joined where the church is located).

⁴³² HHB: reply to FGN questioning this reference:

This was a special (Works Project Admin.) project in the 1930s. All are at the State Library and Archives; they are bound - by Counties. There are many typos in them. Probably lots of people who were working on the project were not people who could interpret handwritings, etc. WPA was something similar to "Welfare"....it saved many starving families. It was sometimes referred to as "We Piddle Around". My father didn't think much of it, but I can now see that it was a necessity. At least the people may have "piddled around" but at least they had to get up and go to work, which is something "welfare" doesn't require. The WPA actually built Berry Field - which is now the Nashville Airport.

Sarah Catharine Louisiana Gleaves married at age 28 to Dirk R. Humble in 1873. She died in 1874 (no children)?

Missouri Jane Gleaves then married her deceased sister's husband (Dirk R. Humble) in 1876....She died 1902.. (no children)? That left only Caldonia Indiana (Indy) Gleaves. She married Francis M. 'Doc' Clements Sept. 1874. He and 'Miss Indy' had a daughter, ADA CLEMENTS, born (unknown). She is said to have married a Mr. Henry. She died before 1933. children : Unknown

The Gist of it is that 'Doc' Clement may have become the sole owner of this property. (If not their daughter Ada). Doc later married Ida Osment. 'Doc' was an old Civil War Veteran...born 1847, died Feb. 10, 1940. He was living on the Gleaves property at the time of his death. He was well-acquainted with Mr. Jim T. Gleaves, another Civil War Veteran who lived to be 100 and died in 1945. The Gleaves Cemetery is best known by the name of Clements Cemetery⁴⁴¹ – called by this name because he had lived there since 1874.

MRS. RUTH GLEAVES⁵¹⁰

‘Mrs. Ruth Gleaves Celebrates 90th Birthday with Schoolgirl Friend’ Date: Oct. 13, 1940⁵¹¹.

Quietly at her beautiful country home near the Hermitage, located on a knoll overlooking one of those beautiful valleys of Middle Tennessee, Mrs. Ruth Gleaves is today celebrating her ninetieth birthday.....

On Sunday her daughter, Miss Kate Gleaves, invited a few friends to an old-fashioned home gathering in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Gleaves received her guests in the room to which she came as a bride 65 years ago.

.....seated at the table were Mrs. Gleaves’ daughter, Miss Kate Gleaves and Mrs. Mai Gleaves, her grandson Frank and James Gleaves, Mrs. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Littrell Rust and daughters Margaret Ann and Emmaline and Mr. Clarence J. Trantham. A number of the neighbors called during the evening to congratulate Mrs. Gleaves.

Mrs. Gleaves was born on what is now known as Wilson Pike, some 5 or 6 miles from Brentwood in Wilson County, Tennessee. She was the niece of James H. Wilson, one of the wealthiest landed proprietors in the county at that time.....

Mrs. Gleaves first married James Fortsam in 1853, but he lived only six weeks. In 1856 she married Frank B. Gleaves⁵¹² and went as a bride to the very house where she now lives and has occupied the same rooms as her bedroom ever since.

Her guests during those years (1861-1865) ranged from those matchless heroes of the confederacy, Gens. Morgan and Forrest, to the most despised Yankee Private. Once particularly she outwitted the Yankee by successfully hiding a handsome young colt in a newly dug milk cellar near the house...

⁵¹⁰ This Nashville Tennessean newspaper article found in the Vertical Files in the Tennessee State Library and Archives...under the name of Gleaves. Excerpts from that article.

⁵¹¹ date was typed on the clipping, but information re her age, date of marriage does ‘not fit’

⁵¹² Benjamin Frank (son of Thomas, and Sally); See Census reference 2.1.9 in the Census for 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880. Husband is listed as B. F. ; Benjamin; Benj. Frank., and Frank B.

THE GLEAVES HOUSE⁵¹³

An old man had carefully written out the details of his will, but after his death his son had turned the inheritance of others to his own use. The actions of the son allowed him more wealth than he might otherwise have had, but his descendants were eventually deprived of what had been gained by his greed, and the lives of others were diminished in the process. A house was built, and after the years had passed into well over a century, it became one of the last remaining structures of a bygone age. With its classical design, its individuality, and the quality of its craftsmanship and construction, the house stood in increasing contrast to more modern dwellings, and by revealing such unmistakable change, its presence provided insights into the direction of that change. The house had stood long enough to become part of the cultural heritage of the neighborhood and of the region, but, as had happened with an earlier inheritance, it was not to be passed on to its proper recipients.

William Stuart⁵¹⁴ was born in Fife-Shire, Scotland, around the middle of the eighteenth century, and after coming to America, he apparently lived for a number of years in North Carolina. He arrived in the Cumberland wilderness with his family by early 1780, and although he received a land grant of 640 acres in 1785, it was several years before he would be able to do much more than clear a few acres of land. Indian attacks ravaged the Cumberland settlements until 1795, and it was probably very soon after the end of the fighting that Stuart moved onto his land, which was located along the east bank of Stones River and across from the place which would become known as Clover Bottom. In addition to Stuart, his wife Margaret, and their son William, those moving to the Stones River tract included a slave woman named Letitia and nicknamed Lettuce, and her four children. A house was built on the southern part of the land, and the elder William Stuart supervised his farm until his death in late 1807 or early 1808. A few months before his death, Stuart had written a will which not only provided that, after the death of his wife, Lettuce and her children would be emancipated, but also instructed that they would receive all of his livestock, his farming implements, his household utensils and most of his land.

Lettuce and her children should have received their inheritance the following summer with the death of Margaret Stuart, but the younger William Stuart would not abide by his father's will and kept the family in slavery. The children, who may have been fathered by the elder Stuart, remained together for a time, but Lettuce and her two daughters, Nell and Celia, were eventually sold and taken away. Her two sons, David and Moses, were kept by Stuart as slaves until 1842, and after moving to Williamson County, they were ultimately freed by a court decision. Before his death in the late 1840s, William Stewart, who had changed the spelling of his name, had given much of the northern part of his father's grant to his daughter and her husband, but David and Moses, with the help of William (B.) Gleaves, a former neighbor, pursued their inheritance in court. Almost a half century had passed since the death of old William Stuart when the Chancery Court of Davidson County ruled that the two former slaves were entitled to almost 500 acres of the Stuart tract, but by the time of the decree, both their mother and their sister Nell were dead, and their sister Celia, who had been taken to Alabama years earlier, had never been heard from again. In addition to its ruling on the land, the court also ordered that David and Moses should be paid over $12,000 for the rent of their property from the time of the elder Stuart's death, and it decreed that they were to receive over $8000 for the work they had performed during that period. David and Moses who had moved to Missouri, chose not to live on the land which they had finally received, and in 1854 a large part of it was sold to a brother of William Gleaves.

⁵¹³ From 'A Past Remembered' by Paul Clements.;
A collection of antebellum houses in Davidson County, Tennessee 1987
(sent to HHB in 1997 by Lois D. Gleaves, of Miami, Oklahoma).

⁵¹⁴ At the beginning of this article, William Stuart is referred to as a SON of the elder William Stuart. Court records refer to him as a nephew.

Thomas Gleaves was born in Virginia in 1771, grew up during the Revolutionary War, and had come from Wythe County, Virginia, to Davidson County by 1796, when he bought a tract of land on the east side of Stones River near the land of William Stuart. He married Sally Smith the following year, and their first child, William, who would grow up to help two disenfranchised slaves reclaim their inheritance, was born soon afterward. Thomas and Sally Gleaves⁵¹⁵ would have a number of other children, and in addition to William, both John, who was born around 1801, and Felix, born around 1816, would have connections to the Stuart tract. Felix Gleaves was still growing up on his father's farm when an older brother, John married in 1828 and by the time Felix married eight years later, John had several children. Sally Gleaves died in the 1840s, not long before the death of her husband Thomas, and in 1854, her son, Felix Gleaves who had taken care of his father in his last years and had been rewarded with a large share of his estate, bought 128 acres of the Stuart tract from the former Stuart slaves, David and Moses. Felix Gleaves probably built the stylish two-story house⁵¹⁶ soon after buying the land and apparently lived there with his wife until the autumn of 1860, when the property was sold to his nephews, Richard and John Bell Gleaves, sons of his older brother John, who had died in the early 1850s.

At the beginning of the Civil War the household apparently included Richard and John Bell Gleaves, their widowed mother, and a younger sister and brother, and although the farm was small, there were some twenty slaves living on the place. Although the house was not damaged during the war, the Gleaves farm suffered significant losses to foragers, and of those who had been living in the house in 1860, only John Bell Gleaves was still living there by the end of the decade. In 1866, the year before the death of his brother Richard, John Bell Gleaves had married Annie Ridley, a descendant of early Davidson County settler George Ridley, and by 1870 two daughters had been born in the house. Four additional children were born over the next few years, but Annie Ridley Gleaves died in 1876, and her husband's unmarried cousin, Charity Gleaves, came to help him raise the children. Most of the Gleaves children grew up and left home during the latter part of the century, but two daughters, Carrie and Blanche, remained in the house after the death of John Bell Gleaves in 1909. The house stayed in the family for a number of years, and in 1967, after several changes in ownership, the Gleaves house became the property of Jerry D. Nelson. The house remained in Nelson's possession for nearly twenty years, but in the spring of 1986 Nelson sold it to the Chapel Road-SASA Apartment Company,⁵¹⁷ a business concern located in Texas, and the Gleaves House was razed soon afterward.

⁵¹⁵ HHB: WHERE did Thomas and Sally live? And where are they buried? I have a feeling that he lived at or near the intersection of Old Hickory Blvd. and Central Pike.)

⁵¹⁶ The only full 2-story houses recalled by HHB was that of Miss Kate & Mrs. Ruth Gleaves ... across the road and slightly West of the one mentioned at Burning Tree. It was log with weather boards and lattice work over some or all of it. Another was the Will Hewgley house on Mill Rd....about 200 yards S. of Central Pike. Could it have originally been a Gleaves house?

⁵¹⁷ HHB: The apartment complex was named Burning Tree Apartments and still known by this name as of January 2005. An abandoned cemetery lies at the northern most part of this complex. The house moved & remodeled E. on Central Pike - across from Melvin Rd

FGN: This cemetery is now named the Thomas Gleaves Cemetery after the family cleaned and reclaimed it.

OLD HICKORY SHOPPING CENTER BURNS

Old Hickory Shopping Center will be missed by a lot of people. It was built on land purchased from DuPont Plant, but was originally a parcel of land owned by Michael Gleaves. He was the first white settler in Old Hickory, Tennessee.

Michael Gleaves was born in 1754 in Cripple Creek, Virginia and came to Mansker's Fort under the command of Captain Donelson about 1779. He entered the Colonial Army and fought in the Battle of Kings Mountain in 1780 and then returned to Mansker's Fort where he married Rachel. He received a 640 acre Land Grant for his service (Land Grant #26). This land was across the river from Mansker's Fort in Jones-Hadley Bend which later became known as Old Hickory, Tennessee. He bought 640 more adjoining acres, and at a Sheriff's sale purchased another 100 acres, giving him a total of 1300 acres. He was a wealthy man at that date and one of the first seven men to pay taxes in Davidson County, Tennessee in the year 1791. This land was occupied by the DuPont Powder Plant during World War I and later became the site of the DuPont Rayon and Cellophane Plants. Old Hickory Shopping Center was built in 1948 on part of the original 1300 acres that was later owned by Dupont.

Michael Gleaves' nephew (Thomas Harvey Gleaves) was my gggg-grandfather and followed his uncle Michael Gleaves from Cripple Creek, Virginia to Tennessee.

My father started work for DuPont in 1935 and met my mother at the Old Dormitory in Lakewood, Tennessee where many early DuPont employees lived. He worked at the Cellophane plant on this property until it closed.

I remember as a child going to the Theater in Old Hickory. It cost 10 cents to get in and for a quarter you would have popcorn and a coke. Kids would leave the movie and go to the Drug Store in Old Hickory Shopping Center and have a soda. Those were the good old days.

The burning of Old Hickory Shopping Center is a great loss to many people and a piece of history gone forever.

MOUNT JULIET, WILSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

By Donna Graves Ferrell of Mt. Juliet, Tennessee

From May 1998 issue of 'The Chronicle' published by the Mount Juliet West Wilson County Historical Society

Tradition says the village of Mount Juliet was named for Julia Gleaves, which is easily disproved. Julia Jennings Baird, a widow, did not live in the area until she married Guy Gleaves, 29 September 1851. During the War Between the States (1861-1865), she was regarded as a 'ministering angel'. She was a well respected member of the community, but the name 'Mount Juliet' had already surfaced before the War and before she moved to the area.

Tradition also says the name Mount Juliet seems to have appeared about 1835. There is no evidence to support this date. In the 1840-50 Census, the area is referred to only as the 25th Civil District. The post office for the 25th District in 1860 was Rural Hill, Tennessee (Suggs Creek area). It is possible the name Mount Juliet was first suggested as a name for a house, and the surrounding community gradually took on the name. Mount Juliet High School was incorporated about 1855. In 1851-1852 several members of the community moved to Texas. These families, the Wrights, Hamiltons, and Hewgleys were among those traveling west and established the name Mount Juliet in Travis County, Texas.

Tradition also tells us the area first known as Mount Juliet was located on a mount, facing the old Lebanon-Nashville Road (Old Lebanon Dirt Road), near the Eagle Tavern. This tavern was a stopover for many a weary traveler and remained a public inn until about 1850. Was this spot manufactured to agree with the Julia Gleaves tradition? Possibly, for there are other 'mounts' in close proximity, but we can conclude this is the general area.

There were people of Irish descent in the district, but only one Irishman in the 25th Civil District in the 1850 Census. His name was Edward Bodily, a stone mason by trade and born ca 1814 in Ireland. Only one who had seen the countryside of Thomastown, Ireland could possibly see the similarities to his newly adopted land. Who else but one who had seen the estates of Mount Juliet, Noreland, and the River Nore could suggest the name Mount Juliet and possibly Moreland (Noreland) Road? Although Stoner Creek is not the River Nore, it does meander below the 'mounts' much like the River Nore of Ireland. In a video I received from Martin P. Nicholson, Managing Director of Mount Juliet in Ireland, the topographies of the two regions are astoundingly similar. Even today in the mind's eye, you can envision the mount Juliet of 1840-1850. Although it is veritably impossible to prove that Edward Bodily suggested the name, there is circumstantial evidence.

Bodily arrived in America sometime before 28 October 1848. On this date, he made bond to marry the daughter of a prominent member of the community. The lady of his affection was Abraham Heuguley's youngest daughter, Almedia. Abraham possibly did not approve, but the marriage took place a few months later, 8 March 1849. Abraham, not to be outdone, made his will 18 June 1849. He named another son-in-law, Samuel Hamilton, to act as trustee for his daughter Almedia Bodily. Hamilton was to see that all property described in his will for Almedia stayed in the county of Wilson and the State of Tennessee. If she were to die without issue, the property was to go to Abraham's other children.

Whether Abraham considered his new son-in-law an 'opportunist' or just didn't approve of him is still evident five years later. On 10 February 1854, he added a codicil to his will making William L. Young, another son-in-law, trustee for daughter Almedia Bodily. Samuel Hamilton who married Sarah Heuguley, was already in Mount Juliet, Texas.

The surname BODLE can be found ten miles east of Thomastown in 1835. The information came from The Kilkenny Archaeological Society in Ireland. Edward Bodily was evidently a good stone mason, as much of his work can still be seen today. Research continues as more questions surface. Could Edward Bodily have been one of the many Irishmen who came to work on the Tennessee State capital. From the Tennessee State Capitol Historic Structure Report: 'As early as July 1845, Strickland had advertised for a number of stone masons to whom fair wages would be paid'. Did Bodily build the fire place and chimney in one or more of the houses on the mount? Did he suggest a name for the house? Mount Juliet, in Ireland was a house, not a town or village. Whomever Edward Bodily was, he is the only person in 1845-1850 who could have possibly seen both Mount Juliets.

CENSUS RECORDS for GLEAVES FAMILY in TENNESSEE

NOTES on these CENSUS RECORDS

The author originally researched these records at the Tennessee State Archives when it was strictly a manual process. This meant viewing and reading each page of the records on microfilm to find the family information. At that time the author recorded the Gleaves households and who was living in that house as well as the census citation. The editor reviewed these same images on the Internet at ancestry.com and used its 'every name index' to locate the families and then added additional census details to present a more complete picture of the family at that time.

Only census records from Tennessee are included in this work and these are primarily from Davidson and Wilson counties. It should not be assumed that all Tennessee records are include, since handwriting and/or spelling in the records themselves may preclude determining that these are Gleaves households. Also not every detail in each census has been include as some items, such as language spoken in the home, date of immigration and naturalization, do not apply to these households.

The information in these records can be used to determine:

1. who was living in the household on the day the census taker recorded the information
2. who were neighbors of a household; many of the Gleaves families lived in close proximity to each other
3. what was the economic state of the family as that time, indicated by information such as property values, both real and personal, was the person working and in what occupation and type of business, and could the person read and/or write.

An effort has been made to show the family relationships in these records, but the accuracy of family associations may not be 100% !!

How to Use the Census Reference

A reference has been created for each individual listed in these census records in an attempt to show family relationships. Brothers Michael and William Benjamin Gleaves were used as the starting point for each family with Michael being assigned the value of 1 and William Benjamin being assigned the value of 2.⁵²⁷ The subsequent family order in each generation is based on the family order used by Dennis Glaves⁵²⁸ and may not necessarily agree with the order assigned by the author or as shown in the census records themselves.

This census reference is included in the earlier family information section when the family member is included in any of the census records listed in this work.

The format for a reference of a 'blood relative' is as follows:

- First generation
- Second generation
- Third generation
- Fourth generation
- Fifth generation
- Etc. with each generation separated by a dot/period

⁵²⁷ ASH: Based on the author's listing of the brothers in this work.

⁵²⁸ ASH: Selected by the editor due to the ease of viewing the family in Family Tree Maker records of Dennis Glaves.

The number used in the generation reference indicates the person's position in that generation, i.e. '1' is the oldest member of the generation, '2' is the second oldest, etc.

A spouse is represented by the letter 's' following a dot and the reference number of their spouse. If there is no number following the 's', then there was only one spouse. When there is a number following the 's', i.e. s1 or s2, then this represents whether the spouse was the first, second, third, etc spouse.

When there is a person in the household, who is not a direct relation of the family member, then this person is assigned a reference using the family member's reference followed by a dot and '9z'.

When a household contained a person with the Gleaves name, but the person could not be identified in the Gleaves family, then the person was assigned the number '9.9.9'.

Some examples using the table below:

1. James Roberson Gleaves is reference 2.1.3. This indicates that he is:
 - Descended from the William Benjamin Gleaves as the first generation, look in the table for 2
 - Descended from Thomas Harvey Gleaves as the second generation, i.e. look in the table for 2.1; also the 1 represents that Thomas is the oldest of the children of William
 - Finally the 3 represents that James is the third oldest of the third generation.
2. Elizabeth 'Liza' Wood is reference 2.1.3.s This indicates that she is:
 - The spouse of family member 2.1.3 and she was his only spouse.
3. Louisa P. Morgan is reference 2.1.2.s2 This indicates that she is:
 - The second spouse of family member 2.1.2 who the table shows as William Benjamin Gleaves (born 1798). Note that no reference is given for William's first wife, Harriet Simpkins as she is not listed in any of these census records. Had she been listed, then her reference would have been 2.1.2.s1.
4. Rebecca Brooks is reference 2.1.3.2.3.9z in the 1880 census. This indicates that she is:
 - In the household of family member, 2.1.3.2.3, Robert G. Gleaves but she is not a 'blood relative' even though the census taker recorded her as his mother-in-law. Also note that she is not listed in the Census Reference Table
5. Mary Elizabeth Gleaves is reference 1.4.5.1 [2.6.6.2.s]. This indicated that she is:
 - The oldest child in the family of 1.4.5, John T. Gleaves. While she is in his household, she is represented by this number first.
 - She later married another Gleaves family member, James A. T. Gleaves, and she is given the reference 2.6.6.2.s to represent this relationship (spouse of 2.6.6.2 who is James A. T. Gleaves). When she is in the household of James A. T. Gleaves, she is represented by this number first.
 - By using the two numbers, her relationship is shown in both households.

How to Use the Census Reference Table

Each direct family member listed in a census record⁵²⁹ is included in the census reference table below. The following information is included for each member when it is known:

- Name
- Birth date
- Death date
- Spouse information including
 - Marriage date
 - Spouse birth date
 - Spouse death date
- The census years where the family member is listed indicated by an 'X' under each census year's column.
